HI, CATS 'N' KITTENS.

Phew! That sun is hot! And it sure is difficult rolling up these pegged trousers for a quick paddle . . . especially with the Fixo running down my neck in grey rivulets, soiling the cutaway. And the grubby fingermarks on the white Guiliani with the black wiggly stripe and the red cut-glass diamond. These things bug me. Bah! Better play some rock to lift me up — "Bloodknock's Rock 'n' Roll Call" . . . "Dinner With Drac" . . . "The Old Payola Roll Blues" . . . "Monster Mash".

Now I'm jumpin' again! Next week there are rock 'n' roll happenings for such great artistes as THE ROCKIN' DEVILS, THE ROCK & ROLL ALL-STARS, JAGHOUSE, THE HOUSESHAKERS, CHAPTER, SCREAMIN' LORD SUTCH, MEMPHIS BEND, YAKETY YAK, THE WILD ANGELS, ROCK OF ALL AGES and CRAZY CAVAN and THE RHYTHM ROCKERS. Yum Yum!

NORTH AND MIDLANDS: Sep. 2 — Rockin' Devils at the Hideaway, Birmingham. Rock & Roll All-Stars at the Senate Cabaret Club, Peterlee, Durham. Sep. 4 — Jaghouse at the Manhatten Club, Hartlepool — and at the Red House, Sunderland. Then from 5-10 inclusive back at the Manhatten Club.

WEST AND SOUTH-WEST: Sep. 4 — Houseshakers at Top Rank, Bristol. Sep. 6 — Houseshakers at Pandoras, Swansea.

LONDON AND SOUTH-EAST: August 31 — Crazy Cavan and the Rhythm Rockers at the Railway Hotel, Wealdstone. Screamin' Lord Sutch PLUS Memphis Bend PLUS Yours Truly Rockin' Henry (tweaking the turntables, as Bob Lusty nicely puts it) at Crayford Town Hall, Crayford, Kent. Sep. 1 — Chapter at Palace Bars, Southend. Jaghouse at Music Workshop, Masons Yard, Duke Street, S.W.1. (it's a press reception, too). Sep. 2 — Yakety Yak at the Swan, Kingston. Memphis Bend at Fishmongers Arms, Wood Green. Sep. 6 — Wild Angels at the De-La-Warr Pavilion, Bexhill-on-Sea. Rock & Roll All-Stars at Luton Gateway, Dunstable Road, Luton. Sep. 3 — Rock Of All Ages at the Hound Dog Club Two, Greenford.

SHORT SHORTS: Yakety Yak lost their drummer to the Rock & Roll-Stars — now they're looking for a permanent replacement. They're currently using Johnny Angel's drummer, but any rock drummers skimming through this column contact Drew at 852 2493.

Good news — the Magic Rock Band have re-teamed with Heinz . . . and the Wild Angels are recording their new LP — suggested title "Out At Last".

SOMETHING for record collectors: if there's anything you've been searching for and couldn't find, you might discover it in "Record Mart". It's a magazine devoted to running lists of oldies-but-usually-goodies, some set sale and some auction, all advertised by various collectors. Even if you prefer to pick up your sounds at next-to-nothing prices, there are plenty of mouth-watering gems to gloss over. It's available from F. K. Bailey, 16 London Hill, Rayleigh, Essex SS6 7HP — price is 15p.

STILL looking for a good agency and management — "The mad mad Johnny Quantrell" who came out of a two-year retirement last November to sing rock. Johnny's band, the Confederates, have been through many changes. Now they consist of Johnny and Linda Lee on vocals, Mike Meekham (ex-Groundhogs) on drums, Tony Lander (ex-Episode Six) on guitar, and Jiving Jules on bass. You can get them at 426 1630.

That's all fer now,

See ya soon, baboon! (hopefully at Crayford Town Hall on Aug. 31).

ROCKIN' HENRY
